The Kachelofen philosophy

„Modern meets coziness and tasty regional cuisine!"

Cordiality, passion and home - that's what the Restaurant Kachelofen stands for. Many guests tell us, that a feeling of warmth overwhelms them when they step into our cozy Bavarian parlour. Once seated, you quickly forget the time. In addition to the cozy atmosphere, the hearty service of the Kachelofen team also convinces the guests with commitment, so that you can feel completely at ease!

Tasty cuisine

Feeling good

While you enjoy your aperitif, our kitchen is working at full speed to serve you the best: With much love, finesse and passion, the kitchen team will enchant you with delicious dishes. What is then on your plate and in the glass comes to the greatest possible extent from the region. Supporting the homeland and getting the best for our guests is very close to our hearts:

Our meat comes from a country butchery from the Allgäu and also partly directly from our own highland cattle on the pasture. In addition to cattle, we also have our own free-range chickens, from which we can get our eggs daily. Fresh vegetables and fruit we get from a farmer from the Donauried. Beers, schnapps and liqueurs are from the Allgäu and a large part of our wines from the growing regions of Germany.

That sounds good and convincing for you? Then let us convince you of our cuisine, the team and the atmosphere and be our guest!
